

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Henrietta McCormick Harvey and seven other classmates graduated from Vivian High School 80 years ago as the Class of 1924; and,

Whereas, Henrietta started school at the age of five, riding a pony or horse and buggy to school every day with her brother and also attended neighborhood parties on horseback with other classmates and friends; and,

Whereas, Henrietta graduated from Vivian High School at the age of sixteen and became a teacher after attending Augustana College; and,

Whereas, Henrietta married Mick Harvey, and to this union three children were born, Audrey, Eunice, and Larry, who in turn presented them with seven grandchildren and thirteen great-grandchildren; and,

Whereas, Henrietta enjoys crocheting and playing cards and now resides at Parkwood Apartments in Pierre, South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Henrietta will attend her 80th class reunion with many other attendees at the Vivian All School Reunion on September 4, 2004, and it is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of this milestone in the life of a woman who has lived an exemplary life for all to emulate:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 4, 2004, as in South Dakota.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-seventh Day of August in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Four.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor
